IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 26, 1977

Mr. BINGHAM introduced the following bill; which was referred jointly to the Committees on International Relations and Ways and Means

A BILL

To limit the imposition of trade embargoes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3       That this Act may be cited as the "Economic War Powers
4       Act".

5       SEC. 2. The President shall consult with the Congress
6       before imposing any trade embargo on any country.

7       SEC. 3. (a) (1) Unless terminated sooner by the Presi-
8       dent or by the Congress under paragraph (2), any trade
9       embargo imposed after the date of enactment of this Act
10      against any country shall cease to be effective at the end
11      of the sixty-day period beginning on the date such trade

1 embargo becomes effective unless prior to such time the 2 Congress adopts a concurrent resolution approving the trade
3 embargo and designating some later time when the trade
4 embargo shall cease to be effective, in which case the trade
5 embargo shall cease to be effective at the time so designated.

6 (2) The Congress may at any time terminate any 7 trade embargo imposed after the date of enactment of this 8 Act (including a trade embargo with respect to which a 9 concurrent resolution has been adopted under paragraph 10 (1)) by adopting a concurrent resolution stating that such 11 embargo shall cease to be effective at a designated time.

12 (b) As used in this Act, the term "trade embargo"
13 means any prohibition against all or substantially all trade 14 between the United States and a specific country (other than 15 any such prohibition imposed under section 5 of the United 16 Nations Participation Act of 1945 or pursuant to a request
17 of any international organization of which the United States
18 is a member by treaty).
